

Lesson Description	SAS Program	R Program	Report image
			• This lesson is meant to demonstrate the typical summary statistics presented for a pharmacokinetic concentrations summary table • Geometric stats like geometric mean, geometric standard deviation and geometric cv are shown in the table • For obtaining the geometric statistics, ◦ we convert the result to logarithmic value and then obtain the statistics using proc summary and then ◦ we back transform the statistic values using exponentiation